Is the wolf so bad as they say?

It is summer. Life flows gently and peacefully. In the evening, the sheep gather around a fire to keep the wolf away. They say that he is so terrible that he could eat them in a single bite. And when, in the middle of the night, it starts to rain and the fire is about to go out... it is getting so scary as the wolf is approaching!

Off you go!

Little Mouse celebrates his birthday and so much more

Today is a special day for little mouse: it is his birthday.

There is so much to celebrate as he is now 1 year older: he knows how to tie his shoelaces, he has lost a tooth, he is not afraid of the dark anymore. But the best thing about today is the party with all his friends.

A delightful picture book about celebrating the milestones in childhood.

Illustrators and Authors List

ALBON Lucie

Live sketching, large collages, artistic collaborations...

Lucie Albon enjoys playing with all kinds of techniques and formats. She studied at the Beaux Arts in Angoulême and the Arts Décoratifs in Strasbourg. Since, she has published more than forty books and created several large murals (Japan, Germany, Spain, France, etc.).

ALESSANDRONI Camille

Camille Alessandroni was born in 1986 and grew up in France near the forest which she loves a lot. Passionate about drawing, she trained in fashion design at Duperré Design School and worked for 15 years in textiles, while continuing to fill her sketchbooks. She explores nature and childhood through her work by mixing charcoal and acrylic paint.

ARTEMOVA Elza

Elza Artemova born 1988 in Russia creates inspirational pictures and comes up with memorable characters for children. She uses natural materials and digital graphics to illustrate children's books and create illustrations for product design.

BARUZZI Agnese

Agnese Baruzzi studied in Urbino, Italy. She lives in Bologna and is the award-winning creator of Look, Look Again, Opposite Surprise and Big Size Surprise.

BERTEL Julien

Julien Bertel was born in 1980 in France. A biologist by training, he held many jobs, from research to administration. By reading stories for his young daughter, he got caught up in the game to invent some in turn.

BIELINSKY Claudia

Claudia Bielinsky was born in Argentina and grew up in Buenos Aires where she has studied at the School of Fine Arts. After she moved to France and the birth of her son, she started illustrating children's books. Fifty books later, fortunately, she still has a lot of great ideas!

BONNET Rosalinde

As a child, Rosalinde Bonnet could not decide whether she wanted to be a wildlife biologist or an illustrator. But, because she spent most of her time doodling, she chose to study art. Rosalinde has since written and illustrated numerous books, and designs toys, bedding and home decor.

CLAIRE Céline

Céline Claire was born in the Vosges, in France. She began working as a teacher, but her love of storytelling made her want to write her own stories. She published her first children's book in 2006. 18 years and three children later, she now devotes all her time to writing.

Illustrators and Authors List

DA SILVA Eurydice

Eurydice Da Silva is an author and scriptwriter, for audio, podcasts and audiovisual fiction and documentary.

FAURE Marjolaine

Born in Saint-Étienne, Marjolaine first worked as a textile designer before training as an illustrator. Now living near Bordeaux, she devotes herself entirely to her artistic career as a watercolourist and children's illustrator.

FRAVALLO Baptiste

Baptiste Fravallo studied audiovisual production. He lives in Paris, where he works for production companies. He is currently working on various children's book projects. His favourite themes are nature, childhood and the bonds between animals and humans. 'My cat and I' is his first children's book.

GEMME Pierre

After being a teacher, Pierre Gemme now writes books to educate young readers about the fragile beauty of nature and respect for others.

LE BRUN Cécile

Cécile Le Brun was born in Montpellier in 1990 and spent her childhood in West Africa: Mauritania, Cape Verde and Senegal. At the age of 11 she moved back to the South of France. She studied illustration at the IPESAA School of Applied Arts in Montpellier, and likes to work mainly in watercolor.

MAJOR Lenia

Lenia Major is a children's and fantasy author. She has published over a hundred picture books and novels blending magic, adventure and emotion, which have been translated into many languages. Deeply committed to animal welfare, she seeks to raise awareness among her readers through her stories.

MICHEL Clémentine

Clémentine Michel was born in France in the 1990s. With the birth of her nieces and nephews, she not only rediscovered the books of her childhood but also discovered her talent for writing.

MORONVAL Sophie

Sophie Moronval works in a kindergarten and loves to invent stories. She has always been passionate about children's literature and loves spending time in bookstores. In 2021 she started to send her texts to publishing houses. The beginning of a great adventure!

Illustrators and Authors List

MROZIEWICZ Elsa

Elsa Mroziejewicz is a paper artist and illustrator. Her work is inspired by the circus, the theatre, the cinema and music.

PLUMAPI

Plumapi graduated in architecture and design in Paris and worked as a computer graphic designer for almost 20 years. Today she lives in Normandy and illustrates picture book always with a good sense of humour.

RÉGANI Soufie

After studying applied arts and obtaining a BTS degree in object design, Soufie Régani worked as a graphic designer for two years before devoting herself entirely to illustration in 2010. She is the author and/or illustrator of around thirty children's books and lives in the Jura region with her family.

RENGOT Élise

Elise Rengot was born in 1991 in Dunkirk and grew up by the North Sea. Today, she works as a journalist for youth publications in Toulouse. She also writes stories to inspire children's imaginations... and make them laugh!

RIGHINI-FLEUR Léo

Léo Righini-Fleur is an illustrator and designer of children's books. He graduated from École Estienne (Paris) in Illustration in 2017 and from the Haute école des arts du Rhin (Strasbourg) in Visual Didactics in 2020. Games are at the heart of his work: building games, word games, graphic games... This enables him to share funny stories, scientific content and poetic experiences.

SANDRI Isabelle

Born in Belgium, Isabelle Sandri has lived in the Paris region for over twenty years. Responsible for reader and internet user relations at a national daily newspaper, she wrote for pleasure for many years before embarking on editorial projects for young people.

THARLET Ève

Ève Tharlet was born in France in 1956 and grew up in Germany. She now lives in Priziac, France. After completing her degree at the Ecole des Arts Décoratifs in Strasbourg she has been working as an illustrator for children's books since 1981. She has received various awards for her books which have been published all over the world.

ZHANG Xinyue

Xinyue Zhang is an illustrator from China. She enjoys working with hand-drawn techniques and is also skilled in digital media. Her practice resists a fixed style—each project discovers its own visual language—yet her works often radiate with vivid colours, graphic clarity, and a sense of freshness. In 2020, she founded Sideway Studio, which focuses on illustration and animation advertising projects.
